

HYBRID LEARNING CONSORTIUM CONSENT FORM

Evansville Day School has partnered with the Hybrid Learning Consortium for next year. Students in both the middle and upper schools will have the opportunity to participate in the program by taking a class online with HLC.

Why HLC?

- Daily teacher connection with students
- Maximum class size of 17 students
- Global communications and collaboration
- Active student engagement through 21st century skills
- College preparatory rigor
- Founded on independent school tradition
- Expanding course offerings
- Professional development

Requirements for HLC?

- Ability to work independently
- Keep up with classes at EDS as well as online class
- Remain in contact with online teacher

Semester courses are $500. Year-long courses are $1,000. EDS covers half of the cost. Payment is due at time of registration. Students may withdraw and receive a refund (less a $50 administrative fee from HLC) up to two weeks before the first day of classes. After such time, no refund will be given. EDS will invoice any student receiving assistance beyond the 50% subsidy up to that amount.

Preferred registration by June 1.
