Medical Release

We (I) grant permission to school officials to secure emergency medical or dental treatment or hospital service for the student at the parents' or guardians' expense.

We (I), the undersigned, agree to hold harmless and indemnify Evansville Day School, its employees, and its representatives and agents from all claims, damages, or other liabilities for injuries to the student which are not the result of gross negligence, intentional neglect, or willful or wanton conduct by the School or its agents, representatives, or employees.

We (I) understand and acknowledge that the use of sports equipment, facilities and services involves risks, and that a sport is inherently dangerous, and as such, voluntary participation in this activity might result in bodily injury and/or property damage from the use of any equipment or facilities, from the activity itself, from the acts of others, or from the unavailability of emergency medical care. We (I) assume all risks related to the sporting activity and release Evansville Day School, employees and agents, the heirs and assigns, officers, and agree not to sue them on account of or in conjunction with any claims, causes of action, injuries, damage, or cost of expenses arising out of the activity, including those based on death, bodily injury or property damage whether or not caused by the acts, omissions or other fault of the parties being released. We (I) waive the protection afforded by any statute or law in any jurisdiction whose purpose, substance, and/or effect is to provide that a general release shall not extend to claims, material or otherwise which the person giving the release does not know of or suspect at the time of executing the release. This means, in part, that we (I) release unknown future claims.

Please check any medication* that we are allowed to administer to your child without calling you first:

Allergy _____ Antihistamine Cream _____ Tums _____ Acetaminophen _____ Ibuprofen _____

If your child has an allergy that requires the potential use of an epi-pen or Benadryl, please notify Mrs. Bultemeier or Mrs. Englebright and provide them with these medications on the first Monday morning that your child arrives.*

If you need your child's teacher to administer any other medication to your child, please provide that medication to your child's teacher each morning that it is required.*

Photo Release

By returning this page of the confirmation packet, we (I) hereby give permission for photographs and/or names of any member of our family to appear in the school's website, social media outlets and also school publications such as the yearbook and promotional materials approved by the School.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR SUMMER ACADEMY 2017

- A. Evansville Day School believes that a positive and constructive working relationship between Evansville Day School and a student and his or her parent(s) and /or guardian(s) is essential to the fulfillment of Evansville Day School's mission. In consideration and acknowledgment of this belief, I/we agree to accept and honor the rules, regulations, and policies of Evansville Day School and its Head of School's decisions, including those in existence as of the date hereof as well as all additions, substitutions, and modifications that may be subsequently adopted. I/we understand that Evansville Day School reserves the right to decline re-enrollment, dismiss, or require withdrawal of the student at any time during the school year, or to deny graduation or withhold academic records and recommendations from any other school or college, if Evansville Day School concludes that the action of the student or a parent or guardian makes such a positive and constructive relationship impossible or otherwise seriously interferes with Evansville Day School's accomplishment of its mission.

In the event the student, individually or with others, damages school property intentionally, recklessly, or in violation of school policy or the law, full restitution must be made by the student and/or the undersigned. Any failure to make restitution will be considered a default.

- B. The privileges of the School may be denied to any student whose family/guardian is unable to meet their financial obligation to the School. The School reserves the right to deny attendance to students whose accounts include overdue balances.
- C. The facilities of our program are designed only for children who are toilet trained. Therefore, all enrolled children must be toilet trained to attend classes at Evansville Day School.
- D. We (I) grant permission to school officials to secure emergency medical or dental treatment, hospital service, or laboratory fees for the student at the parents' or guardian's expense.
- E. We (I) hereby give permission for the student to go on adult-supervised excursion tours and field trips planned by the School, and to use Evansville Day School's library, computer and internet resources, according to school rules.
- F. We (I) expressly agree to the participation by the student in any activities of the Evansville Day School, including but not limited to classes, recess, physical education, dining, school-sponsored trips away from campus, and any other school-related activity or extracurricular activity, and the use of any school facility or property.
- G. We (I) waive the protection afforded by any statute or law in any jurisdiction whose purpose, substance, and/or effect is to provide that a general release shall not extend to claims, material or otherwise which the person giving the release does not know of or suspect at the time of executing the release. This means, in part, that we (I) release unknown future claims.

Nondiscriminatory Practice - Evansville Day School admits students of any race, gender, religion, nationality, or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally made available to students at the School. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, religion, nationality, or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admission policies, tuition assistance, or athletic and other school-administered programs.
